

The Greek alphabet

| | | | | | | | |
|---------------------|-----------|---------|-----|-----------------|----------|---------|-----|
| α | A | alpha | (a) | ρ | P | rho | (r) |
| β | B | beta | (b) | σ | Σ | sigma | (s) |
| γ | Γ | gamma | (g) | τ | T | tau | (t) |
| δ | Δ | delta | (d) | υ | Y | upsilon | |
| ε | E | epsilon | (e) | φ, ϕ | Φ | phi | |
| ζ | Z | zeta | | χ | X | chi | |
| η | H | eta | (h) | ψ | Ψ | psi | |
| θ, ϑ | Θ | theta | | ω | Ω | omega | |
| ι | I | iota | (i) | | | | |
| κ | K | kappa | (k) | | | | |
| λ | Λ | lambda | (l) | | | | |
| μ | M | mu | (m) | | | | |
| ν | N | nu | (n) | | | | |
| ξ | Ξ | xi | | | | | |
| \circ | O | omicron | (o) | | | | |
| π | Π | pi | (p) | | | | |

Note: In the Greek alphabet, α is the first letter and ω is the last letter. This is different from the Latin alphabet where a and z are the first and last letter, respectively. The gray letters indicate the relationship to the Latin alphabet.